Sixteen new songs from the original home recording artist LMNOP about goats, RMAs, oceans, milkshakes, benches and more. The band is the solo project created by S. Fievet who is also known as dONW7 and Don W. Seven. But some just know him as 'the babysue guy.' [dONW7 was added later to make it easier to find the real LMNOP on the internet.] The album is a test to see how much mileage can be gotten out of a $15 guitar amp found at a yard sale. Recorded in ten months, the songs on whatNOP dONW7 incorporate both vintage and modern instruments and technology. Lyrics play an integral role in the songs and can be found at LMNOP.com/whatNOP.html.

LMNOP aka dONW7 is the man behind the babysue comic strip, website, print magazine and music label...continuously maintaining and updating music, comics and other authored works on the internet. After releasing multiple albums and producing volumes of comics and literature, he is still probably best known as the creator of the Missing Dog Head poster that was a worldwide FAX machine sensation in the 1990s just before the internet hit.

MISSING DOG HEAD

You finding Ling-Ling's head?
 Someone come into yard, kill dog,
 cut off head of dog.
 Ling-Ling very good dog.
 Very much want head return.

The band has self-released eleven albums and a 7" single. Three albums were also released on the French New Rose label. An EP was issued by Great Britain's Fierce. Songs have also appeared on several various artists compilations.

For a band that has remained obscure from the beginning, much been written about this ongoing multifaceted underground project. But no quotes or sales pitches. Interesting perspectives from amazing individuals are laced throughout the internet. Search LMNOP Fievet and see what pops up.
